

I oppose the 'Established Business Arrangement' exception to the 'Do Not Call' lists. In addition, many Internet businesses require an email address and/or telephone number - I do NOT want that being used as 'permission' to use that information to harrass me. Bothe the Federal and Indiana Do Not Call lists have been very beneficial to me.